The Ramazan season in Turkey is a joyous, festive time. Music plays an important role in the Turkish Ramazan observations. We will welcome our beloved music teacher, Dr. Timuçin Çevikoğlu with a special Ramazan evening at the ICS in Ballard, as he arrives in Seattle to direct the sixth annual School of Turkish Music, during which he will offer instruction in Turkish Classical and Sufi Music for singers and instrumentalists (see rumiseattle.org for details), followed by a public concert on Saturday, July 11, at the ICS.

Please join us for an evening of special Ramazan devotional music and poetry presented by Timuçin and friends. We will break the fast with dates and water, share prayers, and enjoy a beautiful potluck Iftar dinner together as a family and community. Your generous donations will be gratefully accepted to help defray the costs of hosting the School of Music. Please bring a dish to share. If the dish you wish to share contains meat of any kind, kindly be sure that it is prepared with halal ingredients.
